Inventories

OF PRIVATE RESIDENCES

are a necessity in the adjusting of LOSSES by FIRE or BURGLARY and in the SETTLING OF ESTATES. They should be made by people expert in the art and bound in duplicate, one to be kept in the house for ready reference and the other put in a safe place together with the Insurance Policies.

Sixteen years ago I originated the system of Inventorying the contents of Private Residences, which has since become so popular and well known throughout the country, and which I have since perfected to a high degree.

It affords the owner ABSOLUTE PROTECTION, as over Four Thousand Patrons in the principal Cities and Summer Colonies of the United States will testify.

Estimates furnished free of charge and satisfactory work guaranteed. Send for my Illustrated Booklet which contains the names of many of your friends and neighbors.

CARD ETIQUETTE

The significance of a card is always considered by well-bred men and women, and its fitness to the occasion is an expression of its owner's individuality; in fact, the card is the beginning and the end of etiquette—the introduction and the farewell.

A written name should never be used unless the bearer's formal cards are beyond reach.

Ladies' visiting cards should be nearly square, fine in texture, flexible and of a soft white. Changes in form of course occur, but these are the characteristics for those who respect good form.

It is imperative that Mrs. or Miss should be placed before the name upon the engraved card.

It is proper to use the husband's complete name. Initials are seldom seen.

During a young girl's first season in society her name is engraved upon her mother's card. If she is the eldest unmarried daughter she is appended as Miss Smith, otherwise her full name is given with the prefix of Miss.

When two daughters enter society together it is proper for them to be mentioned upon their mother's card together, thus:

MRS. JAMES SMITH.
THE MISSES SMITH.

Afternoon tea cards are sent a week or ten days in advance of the date upon them.

To send a card without calling signifies inability to call in person.

Acceptances or regrets should be sent as soon as possible after receiving invitations.

"Party Calls" should be made within one week after date of the party.

Invitations in your city can be sent either by mail or messenger as preferred.

The visiting cards of gentlemen are shorter and slightly narrower than those at present used by ladies. "Mr " should be prefixed to the name.

Any lady wishing to inform her friends of the presence of a lady visiting her family should enclose her visitor's card with her own, in the same envelope.

When cards of introduction are given, the name of the bearer should be written above that of the giver, prefixed by the word "Introducing," and the card placed in an envelope addressed to the person to whom the introduction is made.

An invitation to dine should be answered on the day received.

It is always courteous to acknowledge the receipt of an "At Home" card.

A visiting card should always be left when attending an "At Home."

Any invitation requesting your presence requires an answer.

CARD ETIQUETTE FOR CHURCH WEDDINGS

Cards to a church or home wedding, followed by a reception, need no written answer if the recipient proposes to attend, unless bearing the letters R. S. V. P.

When attendance at a church wedding is impossible, cards must be sent the day of the marriage directed to those from whom the invitation comes.

If present at the church it is polite to send a card or cards to those who invite.

CARD ETIQUETTE IN WASHINGTON

Questions are asked concerning the requirements that the official element demands in Washington, and some knowledge of the etiquette of that city is necessary.

The President has absolute precedence. He receives visits—returns none.

He is addressed as Mr. President.

Any invitation extended by the President is equivalent to a command.

There was a question as to who should pay the first visit, the Cabinet officer or the Senator.

Many yield this point to the Senate. The families of Senators are in Washington for a short time, while the residence of the Cabinet is fixed.

The wives of the United States Senators will hereafter call upon the wives of Foreign AMBASSADORS, while the wives of Foreign MINISTERS will make the first call upon the wives of Senators.

In all society, official or otherwise, the clergy take a signal position, and should always be accorded the place of honor, when present.

CARDS FOR BALLS

Note sheets are used for private balls, and the engraved invitation is in the same form as for any evening party.

Cards of ceremony must be left within a week.

If a lady is "at home" on a certain day, cards must be left on that day and no other.

Exceptional occasions of course require exceptional cards; for such there can be no fixed rules.

WHEN TO DROP THE JR.

When a father dies leaving a son of the same name the son should omit the Jr. from his visiting card. To be correct his wife should do likewise, but as confusion sometimes arises because of the mother and wife having the same name the wife often prefers to keep the Jr.

INFANTS' CARDS

It is a pleasing custom to send a small card announcing the birth of a child.

The full name is on the card, also the date of its birth in the lower left hand corner.

It is enclosed with its parents' card, to which it is daintily ribboned.

A visit of acknowledgment is usual. If not possible a card is sent, with "Congratulations" written upon the upper left hand corner.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES

WOODEN—Five years married.

TIN—Ten years married.

LINEN—Twelve years married.

CRYSTAL—Fifteen years married.

CHINA—Twenty years married.

SILVER—Twenty-five years married.

GOLDEN—Fifty years married.

DETECTIVE SERVICE

Etiquette requires that the guest be the recipient of the most solicitous consideration.

While in attendance upon any occasion in response to an invitation, a guest, and the property of a guest, must be adequately protected from any possible depredations not only by means commonly exercised, but by especial measures made necessary by the event.

It is essential at all times when valuables are on display, whether as personal adornment, or on exhibition as gifts, as in the instance of wedding presents, that private detectives be employed by the host or hostess.

Men or women who know thoroughly the traits of the class of culprits who confine their activities to the social events heralded by newspaper publications and social periodicals must be secured from a reputable detective private agency

A month or so prior to the date set for a wedding, or as soon as any presents are received, it is advisable to engage a detective to guard the gifts during the night; and also during the daytime for a period of at least several days before the ceremony, or during the absence of household members from the premises.

When delegated for service of this kind, the detective in company with the host or hostess makes an inventory of all the articles which are to be protected, and this is added to and checked up periodically. Before the departure of the detective, after everything has been packed and safely put away by its owners, a final accounting is taken.

Detectives, dressed as the occasion requires, are generally employed at the time of the ceremony to mingle with the guests in order to prevent any undesirable persons from frequenting the premises. It is usually advisable to have a detective in street dress on the grounds to prevent photographers and reporters, etc., from entering the premises or annoying the guests or gaining access to the church or house at the time of receptions, parties, and rehearsals or other social affairs.

INVESTIGATION

Detectives afford the only real protection against blackmailers and slanderers which can be given to girls and young men who are in schools of any sort away from home, or any place where there is a reasonable amount of wealth represented by students.

Careful investigation from time to time, of actions and habits of young women attending schools and colleges away from home and away from the guidance and chaperonage of parents, especially of their companions of either sex, unvouched-for hostesses, and their surroundings in general, may enable parents to keep all concerned from various sorts of unpleasant entanglements.
